

A Heartfelt Note From Isa

Music, reflection, and guidance worth sharing with the people we love

Dear friends and family,

I wanted to share something that has truly inspired me. Over time, I have gained a lot of meaningful insight through Zen Compass, and it has helped me reflect more deeply on life, purpose, relationships, and the kind of decisions that shape our future.

That is why I wanted to share it with the people I care about most. This is not just about music, although the music is beautiful. It is also about giving people a thoughtful guide that can encourage reflection, clarity, and better decision-making in life.

Zen Compass brings together heartfelt songs, personal inspiration, and guided insights in a way that feels uplifting and deeply personal. When you sign up, you can begin with the song “Certain From the Start” and explore a growing collection of music created to move, encourage, and inspire.

What you will discover

- A growing library of powerful songs filled with love, inspiration, and emotion
- A personal birthday song experience created just for you
- Guided personal insights designed to help you understand who you are at your core
- A chance to reflect more deeply and move through life with greater direction and confidence
- New songs added monthly, so the experience keeps growing
